Libana Workshop (June 24) and Concert (June 25)

Libana is a Boston-based group of seven women who research and perform women's traditional and contemporary music from around the globe and is dedicated to bringing the joy of singing into people's everyday lives. Check out www.libana.com if you don't already know about this amazing group of singers.

We'll need help with publicity, housing our singers, ushers and ticket takers at door.

Annual Appeal Mailing Party – August 29 – 31

Have an hour? Have an evening? This is a stuffing, sealing, labeling marathon – the more hands the faster we complete it. We run this during the day and the evening to complete it. Any time you can contribute is a great help.
